YANK ARMS-DEAL HELPS ULSTER SELL-OUT

SDLP and Thatcher involved

BRITAIN HAS been one of the targets for the Reagan-backed arms deals and interference in other countries exposed in the so-called "Irangate" scandal. And far from complaining and taking action to show British neutrality and protect our national interest, Mrs. Thatcher has turned a blind eye to the scandal. In fact, it is possible that she gave Reagan the idea for his covert foreign operations team right at the beginning.

The left-wing British press has printed allegations by Mr John Collins, a merchant navy officer, that he took part in a covert operation to ship £18 million worth of arms destined for the reactionary Contra terrorists in Nicaragua.

Mr Collins claims that the weapons, including anti-aircraft missiles made by Shorts of Belfast, were to have been shipped in 1985. He says that they were to sail in a Guernsey registered ship, the Silver Sea, with the full knowledge of both the US and British governments.

MORE DISTURBING

But the mass media here have not been so quick to publicize a number of far more disturbing facts about the revelations on "Irangate". For these show that not only was Britain used as a staging post for illegal arms shipments, but also that Britain was a TARGET for subversive operations by Reagan's puppet Colonel Oliver North.

Once again, though, Thatcher has not objected, because she has actually helped in the U.S. assault on the part of Britain in question - Ulster. Tens of thousands of dollars made by selling arms to Iran have been channelled by North and the U.S. government into the Northern Ireland Social Democratic and Labour Party.

The SDLP is the "moderate" wing of the Irish imperialist mentality which wants to submerge the British nation of Ulster in a United Ireland. Their basic aim is the same as the IRA - the only difference is that the SDLP correctly believes that this can best be done with the help of Thatcher and the rest of the Westminster traitors, rather than by blowing up women and children.

INTERFERE

Men involved with this aspect of Colonel North's work were heavily involved in the planning of the Anglo-Irish Agreement, which gives the Republic of Ireland a growing "right" to interfere in the day-to-day running of Ulster. It seems likely that this whole treacherous move to hand over part of Britain to a foreign power was planned by Thatcher and Reagan back in 1982 during the President's visit to Britain in June of that year.

It was immediately after that visit that Reagan used U.S. government funds to set up the National Endowment for Democracy (NED). This shadowy front group then set up "Project Democracy", a foreign policy task force which would take over the role of the discredited CIA. Congress agreed to fund the Project after the then head of the CIA, William Casey, promised that the CIA would not be involved.

It is now clear that the CIA didn't need to be, because covert overseas activities were from then on run directly by Reagan's own National Security Council.

According to facts uncovered by the congressional investigations into "Irangate", Project Democracy had a wide range of sub-departments, including trade union groups, academic and foreign policy bodies in both the Republican and Democratic parties. It was one of these front groups, the National Democratic Institute for International Affairs, which "adopted" the Northern Irish SDLP in 1985.

FRONT COMPANY

Since then, the SDLP has received tens of thousands of dollars and political training from the U.S. government, through a badly disguised front company. The SDLP has admitted receiving this aid, but claims that the National Democratic Institute is part of the American Democratic Party. That is not true, as the NDI is simply a front for Reagan's National Endowment for Democracy.

The link with the SDLP began at least three years ago when SDLP boss John Hume visited the U.S. It was strengthened greatly in 1985 when 13 top SDLP members visited Washington DC on a trip financed by the NDI. They claim that this was for "electoral and administrative training", but this is clearly not the whole truth. For one thing, the U.S. electoral system is so unlike the British one that training in U.S. electoral techniques would be useless over here.

It is more likely that the SDLP top brass were being briefed as to the "pay-off" expected from them in exchange for American help. For Reagan's interest in Ulster is based on two things: Firstly, any politician seen to have helped "get the Brits out of Ireland" would win the strong support of the powerful American-Irish lobby.

OPEN SECRET

Secondly, it is an open secret that the Americans have an understanding with the ruling clique in Dublin that if the Yanks help create a United Ireland, they will be allowed to use its ports for military use and will gain another site for nuclear missiles in Europe.

Enoch Powell claimed last year that America was heavily involved in setting up the Anglo-Irish Agreement, but was unable to point to any facts to show this to be true. He might now like to note that Sean Donlon, a key figure in the talks which led to the Dublin/Westminster agreement at Hillsborough is a close friend of the former CIA chief William Casey.

Donlon, the head of the Irish Republic's Department of Foreign Affairs, became a firm friend of the CIA boss while he was the Irish ambassador in Washington.

In March 1981, Casey was guest of honour at a feast hosted by Donlon at the Irish embassy in the North: I swear by the Great Satan, to lie, cheat, kill, maim and terrorize everywhere, so help me SDLP.

U.S. capital. It was Donlon who helped SDLP chief John Hume build such a favourable image in the States, as the two have been in close contact since the 1970's.

This massive U.S. backing explains why the SDLP has been able to build such a powerful propaganda machine in Ulster, and why they were so heavily involved in the early consultations about the Anglo-Irish Agreement. It also helps explain why the SDLP is now playing an even bigger role than the IRA's political wing Sinn Fein in the drive to break Loyalist resistance to the Agreement.

DESTRUCTION OF ULSTER

The long term advantages to the U.S. government of the destruction of Ulster are clear. But there have also been some short term benefits for Colonel North and his team of Reagan "spooks". Congressional investigators have accused them of using stolen Irish passports for their organizing and gun-running trips around the world.

It is also reported that they have used ports in Ireland and Ulster, including the West twin Silo Wharf on the north side of Belfast docks.

The "Irangate" scandal has rocked the U.S. presidency. If the British System contained an ounce of honesty it would do the same to Thatcher's government as well. At any other time a person who allowed a foreign power to use British soil for gun-running capers and conspired with that same power to hand a part of Britain over to foreign rule, would be hanged for treason. But in Britain today, she looks set to be re-elected as Prime Minister for the third time.

NF NEWS aims to become a mouthpiece for Supporters and sympathizers all over the country. With the Establishment's grip on the rest of the news media, it is vital that we build an alternative voice which gives ordinary Britons the chance to publicize what is happening in their own communities.

But we can only tell the nation if you tell us! Over the months and years ahead, NF News must build a nationwide network of correspondants who make it their job to tell what is really going on in their area. This will help the National Front produce good propaganda - and help build an efficient organization at the same time.

These two reports from Manchester, and our exclusive front page scoop about the American corruption behind the Anglo-Irish Agreement, are good examples of the sort of articles we want. Whether you are a confident writer, or whether you just send us the bare facts, your contributions will be very welcome. NF is your voice - use it!

CRIME is soaring in the Greater Manchester area. In the first nine months of 1986, 220,259 crimes were recorded in the Greater Manchester area - an increase of 13.3%. The overall detection rate dropped 5% to just 27%. In simple English, nearly a quarter of a million crimes were reported and only just over a quarter of them were solved.

The 'B' and 'D' divisions, based at Collyhurst and Longsight, have the lowest clear-up rates in the entire force - 25.3% and 24.1%. The recent "rumours" of low morale in the force came from these two divisions.

"GOD"?

The man in charge of the Greater Manchester Police Force is a Mr. James Anderton, who, you will no doubt recall, recently proclaimed that God was speaking through him.

Many NF members also remember his actions back in 1984, when we planned to celebrate St. George's Day by holding our then traditional annual march in the city of Manchester. Mr. Anderton, in his "divine" wisdom, decided that a peaceful parade by a legal British political party, through an English city, to mark the national day of the patron saint of England, would offend the "community."

The "community" of course, was not the British majority in Manchester, but a minority of immigrants, IRA supporters, militant homosexuals and other assorted Marxists, all of whom had been allowed to hold provocative anti-British marches and demonstrations through Manchester for years.

Anderton showed his weakness in the face of "Red" threats by getting the NF banned from marching anywhere in the whole of Greater Manchester. The same cowardice has also led him to adopt a "softly, softly" policy towards drug-dealing and vice in immigrant dominated Moss Side.

SURRENDER

Anderton's recent belated "moral" condemnation of the perversion and drug addiction which have created the Aids menace would carry more weight had he not already shown his willingness to surrender to threats of violence and blackmail. As it is, it looks more like an attempt to divert attention from his appalling record of crime prevention and detection.

Or perhaps he really does think he's got a hotline to God. He certainly thinks he is very important. Mr. Anderton recently applied for a brand new Jaguar XJ6 (£19,000) to be paid for out of tax-payers' money. He whined that his present V-reg Jag is "rusting badly" and "does not befit a man in my position."

With self-important hypocrites like Anderton running the British police force, is it any wonder that the ordinary coppers' morale is low, or that crime is so high?

To protect Anderton from the people perhaps?

....but a stark choice for the workers

MORE THAN half a million workers in Greater Manchester are paid below the poverty line, according to shocking new figures. With nearly half the total workforce in this desperate position, this makes the region one of the poorest in Europe.

These hard facts are in stark contrast to the recent statement by the Tory employment secretary Lord Young, who claimed that "people who are currently in employment have never had it so good." Such an absurd statement shows just how out of touch the government is with the realities of Thatcher's Britain.

The North West is the second worst area in Britain for the low level of male manual workers' pay. Yet despite Tory claims that "lower pay means more jobs", the region has lost more than 750,000 jobs since 1979. Although workers in the North West earn an average of £50 a week less than their southern counterparts, unemployment is much higher.

Nearly two-thirds of the jobs on display at Manchester's Aytoun Street Job Centre are for pay on or below the official poverty level.

The combination of high unemployment and cheap immigrant labour have been used to drive down wages so that workers in the North West now face a stark choice: low pay or the dole queue. Either way, millions of British people are being forced to live and raise children below the poverty line.

Mayor warns NF

WOKINGHAM'S Mayor has issued a warning to The National Front who plan to set up a base in the town — "They better stay out of my way." And Mayor Marion Fergusson Kelly added: "If I catch them selling their paper on the steps of the town hall I'll get them moved straight away."

Over the past few Saturdays, National Front activists have been busy selling their newspapers in Wokingham's town centre.

And a spokesman for Reading's NF explained they had received a favourable response from the townsfolk.

In a couple of hours one Saturday afternoon they claimed to have sold 55 newspapers in two hours. Each newspaper costs 20p.

And because of the favourable reaction, the two young men selling papers, told the Times the NF were planning to set up a local Wokingham branch.

To which the Mayor quickly responded: "They'll be lucky. I've heard that the NF are pretty strong over in Woodley but I should imagine setting up a branch in Wokingham is just a bit of a lark.

"I cannot see them getting a foot hold in Wokingham but if they are going to try let's have it out and open before the local elections."

And she claimed the NF thrive in places where there is racial conflict.

If they are planning to stir up conflict on a national or a local basis then I will oppose it with everything I've got," she warned.

"If they are advocating that a government should not have an open immigration policy when there aren't enough houses or jobs for them, then I should imagine they will find a lot of support here."

"But if they are suggesting repatriation for everyone then they are getting into deep water. There are big groups of Irish and Scottish in Wokingham and Pakistanis and West Indians in Reading.

"Once you start stirring up conflict on the grounds of race rather than law breaking you could be in for a lot of civic trouble."

The NF argued the pivot of their policies was based on repatriation but with financial remuneration.

"We'll give every one £1,000 and index linked pensions to return home. We don't want to rip anyone off," said a spokesman.

"We are the third option — the alternative to capitalism and the alternative to communism."

READING NFN Supporters are making steady progress in the town. The unit has a good young committee with many exciting ideas for the future.

They will shortly be joining the NF's "Distributist League" selling a new top quality poster designed for the growing "White Noise" scene. This will not only help raise money for the local unit, but will increase the influence of Nationalist ideas in a broader youth culture.

And, as the local press cutting reproduced here shows, they are working hard to get the National Front's message over in and around Reading.

LIVERPOOL

EXECUTIVE COUNCIL member, Derek Holland, was the guest speaker at the February meeting of the Liverpool NFN Supporters unit. The meeting was attended by over 20 local members, consisting mostly of new, young recruits.

The meeting commenced with reports by the branch's committee members, followed by the unanimous adoption of committee member, Kevin Dean, as the unit's candidate in the forthcoming General Election.

In his adoption speech, Kevin, said he was very pleased to accept the nomination, especially in view of the new vitality and comradeship in the branch following the removal of several disloyal and corrupt former members, now wallowing in reactionary obscurity in Birkenhead. The collection which followed raised almost £80, which was allocated to the unit's sizeable General Election fund.

Derek Holland then addressed the meeting, speaking about the decline of our country and the need to transform the National Front and its membership in the coming few years. The speech was well received by those present, resulting in a lengthy and constructive question and answer session afterwards.

RENEWED SPIRIT

The renewed spirit of commitment and comradeship evident in Liverpool has led to the commencement of regular street paper sales throughout the area, in conjunction with the nearby Sefton NF News Supporters' unit. Liverpool is already reaping the results of the recent upsurge in members' activism, with a noticeable increase in new enquiries and members, following the production of a simple but effective self-adhesive sticker bearing the unit's local contact address.

Liverpool has also recently produced engraved bios for sale, which are being sold as part of their election fund raising campaign. These bios are available from P.O. Box 89, Liverpool, L69 6AH, price 35p including post. Units of the Movement can obtain bulk rates from the above address.

The continued activism of members in the area was recently rewarded by the formation of a new unit in St. Helen's, where regular door to door papers sales have recently commenced. Liverpool hope to form several more NF units in the Merseyside area during the coming year.

LEEDS

LEEDS NATIONAL FRONT is "alive and kicking" according to the fine internal bulletin its new committee has circulated to all Supporters and sympathizers in the area. And to match words with action, they have started to build up sales of NF News in the city once again.

Leeds NF underwent a brief "hiccup" at the end of last year when a mere six malcontents, several of whom were not even members, voted to leave the movement. But the confusion which resulted is now rapidly being sorted out.

A new P. O. Box for local contacts has been paid for and will be open shortly. Leeds will then join the NF's "Distributist League" of local units making money for their campaigns by trading through the columns of NF News.

Long-standing Leeds NF stalwarts Glenn Taylor and Chalky White have asked NF News to make it clear that the movement is on its feet again in the city. NF supporters in Yorkshire should contact them for more information through P.O. Box 228, Manor Park, London E.12, until the Leeds P.O. Box address can be announced next month.

BARKING

The Post says...

THE National Front's scheme to launch a "protection patrol" against muggers (see page 7) seems on first sight to have some merit.

But heed the words of the experts... the police. They don't want a citizens army patrolling our streets. And they are right.

The National Front should keep out of this and if they feel they must take some action, they should take it through their MPs and councillors.

The Front say they will make "citizens arrests" where necessary. But what happens when a couple of "citizens" don't want to be arrested?

Trouble. The kind of trouble which can result in people being seriously injured.

The Front say they are not planning to be vigilantes. At the moment that may be so. But it's the next step — and, as the dictionary defines vigilantes as people who mete out "summary justice" to offenders, it's a dangerous step.

The National Front would be well advised to listen to the police and drop the idea.

ONCE AGAIN, the publicity gained by NFN Supporters in Barking, East London, speaks for itself. This announcement of Community Action direct action in their target ward sets a great example for units everywhere. No wonder the National Front is going from strength to strength in Barking.

WALTHAM FOREST

AN IMAGINATIVE piece of Direct Action by Waltham Forest NF hit the local headlines recently. Waltham Forest is a pro-Marxist Labour controlled London borough with a large Asian population and an Asian mayor.

One of the council's multi-racial policies is to name streets after Asians. Yunus Khan Close and Ghandi Close are just two of the names which have outraged local residents. To make matters worse, the council has refused to name a street after JASON BURT, a young local soldier who died in the Falklands.

Among the reasons given for this mean refusal was the claim that the Falklands' War was "irrelevant", and the possibility that it would encourage requests for other streets to be named after ex-servicemen.

BIG ISSUE

The council's anti-British attitude has become a big issue in Waltham Forest. Many petitions have been handed in asking for Jason Burt to be commemorated in a street name. And the letters page of the Waltham Forest Guardian has been full of letters about it.

Waltham Forest NF activists therefore decided to take peaceful Direct Action in support of local opinion. Dressed as council workmen and carrying a 12 foot ladder, they removed the Yunus Khan and Ghandi Close street signs in broad daylight.

Then, to the delight of local shoppers, they replaced the name Yunus Khan Close with a neat sign reading "In Remembrance of Jason Burt".

The local press were told who was responsible, but while they printed a picture of the new street sign, they refused to say who had put it up. But in spite of this, word spread quickly on the local "grapevine".

Now everyone in the area knows that it was the National Front which had the drive to ACT when everyone else just sat around moaning.

THURROCK

NF claim surveillance by Special Branch

SPECIAL Branch detectives "tailed" members of the re-formed Thurrock branch of the National Front as they handed out leaflets to schoolchildren, it was claimed this week.

The National Front's Thurrock unit says a dozen plain-clothes officers watched as they started their "school gate campaign" at Grays School in Hathaway Road (pictured).

Organiser Stuart Saxov said: "They were hanging around wearing personal stereos which were obviously walkie-talkies, and took number plates of our members."

"The start of our campaign went very successfully. We had a dozen membership inquiries from pupils and we are hopeful of signing them up."

"It was surprising there was such an undercover operation by the police. We had six members handing out leaflets and all were followed to some extent."

A spokesman for Grays police said they were monitoring the situation and added: "We will be keeping an eye on what's happening. I cannot comment on any involvement by the Special Branch."

THE NEWLY formed Thurrock NFN Supporters Unit has wasted no time in getting active — and in hitting the local headlines. They've received front page coverage in the Thurrock Gazette on three occasions, one of which we reproduce here.

Local Community Relations officers have described the emergence of an active NF unit after a ten-year gap as "very worrying". Their response to the rebirth of the National Front has been to set up a multi-lingual "help line" designed to help immigrant families jump the housing queue into better accommodation.

Such a response should guarantee further progress for the NF in Thurrock.

Editorial

TAKING STOCK

THE National Front has undergone many fundamental changes in its relatively short history, perhaps none so important as the purge of the last remaining undesirable elements, and deviants, in the latter half of last year.

Since that time our movement, and the organization, have made a wide range of solid gains in many aspects of our work.

Although it is early days yet, the staff of NFN feel that this is an appropriate time at which to briefly study the role of this paper, take a look at the part that we have played in some of the gains, and gauge our readers opinions.

PROPAGANDA

It was, and still is, our belief that a serious political movement, if it is to succeed, needs a frequent, campaign, educational and agitational paper for the purpose of influencing, organizing and mobilizing people of a sympathetic nature, as well as our zealots.

The art of propaganda is to strike a balance between that which is informative, easily read and digested, and that which is educational, agitational, and of necessity, more in-depth. The former, to appeal largely to first time readers and the latter to give a deeper insight of our movement, whilst at the same time appealing to, and being of practical help to our activists.

IMPROVED

For our part, we feel that we have more or less struck the right balance under restraining circumstances, although we recognize that shorter, more light-weight articles have, and always will give way to more necessary propaganda.

This, unfortunately, will always be a recurring problem whilst there remains a criminal lack of space at our disposal, as there always will be with a mere eight pages.

By light-weight articles, we stress, we do not mean six or seven lines of irrelevant and moronic garbage that the more sleazier element of the national press, and those of the same mentality carry.

We use the term light-weight to describe the shorter articles commenting on current affairs, a regular letters section or a column detailing the latest effects of more Tory cuts, etc.

It is our opinion that these will come in time, as NFN gradually expands its number of pages. But for the time being, we have too much that has to be said directly relating to our day to day struggle, and not enough space for it, never mind anything else.

SERIOUS

However, in the short space of time that the NF has become a serious political movement, it is already noticeable that the quality of new recruits has improved beyond all recognition. An extra bonus is that if anything, recruitment levels have also increased, as have sales of the paper.

Even so, NFN is your paper as much as ours, and we would appreciate hearing the comments of our readers. If there are any ways in which you think that the paper could be improved, please let us know at PO Box 41, Norwich, NR3 2AH.

IMPORTANT NOTICE; Whenever possible hand correspondence for the NF, NF News or Bookshops to your local NF contact, so that it can be delivered through the movement's internal postal system. This is very important when dealing with subscriptions, orders and membership payments.

If you do have to use the Post Office network, ALWAYS use RECORDED DELIVERY and keep your receipt safely.

While the constant interference with our post is irritating, this attempt to disrupt the NF, is a tribute to its growing effectiveness. So rather than moaning about it, all NF members and supporters must accept the hard work and discipline needed to make our internal communications network an efficient alternative.

EUROPE — A

THE SLOGAN "A Europe of the Peoples" is often used in Nationalist circles in Britain these days. But what does it actually mean? And how is it relevant to the every day problems facing ordinary people?

This special NF News educational feature takes an in-depth look at the facts behind the slogan.

This article was contributed by Nationalist rock star, Ian Stuart. In his songs Ian has done much to spread the idea of European solidarity and co-operation.

THESE DAYS one could be forgiven for thinking that the world's future will be decided by whoever comes out top in the power struggle between the United States and the Soviet Union - if their struggle gives us a future at all. Sometimes, one could quite easily forget that there exists, somewhere in the political turmoil of today, a once great area called Europe.

The only way that Europe will become powerful and end the Super Power domination of our future, is by large scale co-operation and mutual respect between the European Nations.

Some people would point to the Common Market and say, "well, at least it's a start." But whilst corrupt internationalists and Zionist puppets are governing the nations in question, the ideal of European co-operation will sink in a dark sea of greed, bureaucracy, international backbiting and mistrust.

STATE OR NATION

To bring about the mutual respect Europe needs, we have to go further than friendship between, say, Germany and France, or Britain and Italy. This is because in several of the European states there is more than one Nation. The U.K., for example, is made up of England, Scotland, Ulster and Wales. To bring about true respect we have to retain, and indeed encourage, the culture and customs of these individual countries.

In the past, notable Nationalists from these countries have turned against England, because it seemed that England was the source of the disgusting anti-Nationalist habit of trampling on peoples' lifestyles, without any thought for the identity of the nation concerned.

A prime example of this was the flooding of the valley of Tryweryn in Wales, where Liverpool Council and the Westminster parliament decided to create a reservoir. The destruction of this beautiful valley and the flooding of the little village of Capel Celyn, justifiably created much anti-English feeling.

But obviously it wasn't an English decision, but an Establishment one. And despite the fact that the Westminster parliament is in England, most thinking Nationalists now admit that the Establishment there contains many traitors, fortune hunters and political opportunists of every race and creed.

CORRUPTED

Now that the old Nationalist parties such as Plaid Cymru and the SNP, and Loyalist parties such as the OUP and DUP, have been corrupted by becoming part of a completely corrupt system - the only effective movement which respects the cultures of all these nations is the National Front.

It is from this policy of cultural respect and unity in diversity that the Europe of the Peoples will eventually be born. For the problem of oppressed small nations does not only exist in Britain. There are the Bretons and others in France, the Flemish in Belgium and many more, all over Europe. And if the Irish government and Mrs. Thatcher get their way, they will put Ulster at the head of the list.

If we are to bring about the day when people talking about the world's future will say, "yes, but it all depends on what Europe decides to do", then it is time we started respecting all the Nations and cultures of Europe as equals. Only then can we begin to bring about a great new era for our land and for our Europe - The New Beginning.

The Basis!

THE BASIS of the idea of a "Europe of the Peoples" is the fact that the "Nation" is not the same thing as the "State."

The Nation is a living being in its own right. Membership of a Nation is not determined by a piece of paper or a certain colour of passport. It is determined by a common ethnic origin, and shared culture, traditions and hopes for the future. Unless its people or their sense of identity are completely destroyed, a Nation is eternal.

A State, on the other hand, is a man-made and temporary organ of government. Its proper role is to serve the Nation, but it often becomes corrupt and its functionaries rule in their own interests instead of those of the people. Even worse, a State may become aggressive and use "its" people to conquer and oppress another Nation.

ABSOLUTE RIGHT

Such imperialism breaks the basic law of Nationalism: that every Nation has an absolute right to rule itself and decide its own destiny.

The best known forms of imperialism died after the last World War, but three different kinds of this disease still threaten the nations of Europe today.

One half of Europe is crushed under the heel of the Red army; the other half is stupified by the drug of American "culture". And within the States of Europe, many small nations and regions, with their own cultures, languages and traditions, are submerged by the dull conformity spreading like a cancer from capital cities such as Paris and London.

Dollar Imper

THE GREATEST danger to the nations of Western Europe is the dollar imperialism.

THE FORGOTTEN NATIONS OF EUROPE

ALMOST EVERY State in Western Europe includes within its borders at least one small minority European nation whose unique culture and way of life are gradually being strangled by creeping economic and administrative centralization.

Sometimes this is done with brutality, leading to a violent reaction. A good example of this was the long suppression of the ancient Basque nation in the north of Spain by the reactionary fascist Franco. Sometimes it is done by degrading and ridiculing the language of the minority nation. This was done for years to Welsh - the oldest language in Europe - and is still being done by the highly centralist State of France to the Breton nation.

The attempt to suppress such nations inevitably leads to tensions and unhappiness. The German minority in the Italian-ruled South Tyrol, for example, waged a guerilla war against the Italian State during the 1950's. The Flemish inhabitants of the artificial state of Belgium greatly resent the favouritism shown to the french speaking Walloons who dominate that country's Establishment.

UNITY THROUGH DIVERSITY

But even worse than the present violence and hatred caused by such oppression is the fact that, if it is successful, it destroys another part of Europe's identity, for that identity is largely made up of the wonderful diversity which exists among the nations of Europe.

Viewed correctly, this diversity is not a source of weakness, but one of strength. For by cultivating a real love of one's own native land and culture, one is best able to sympathize with people from another nation who have the same feelings. And to stand by them against a common external foe.

EXCLUSIVE

As NFN warned in its mainland exclusive last issue, the P.O.W. camp at Magilligan prison in Ulster has exploded in violence. Driven to desperation by the broken promises of the Northern Ireland Office and forbidden to receive visits from their own M.P.'s, Loyalist prisoners in the jail took the only course left to them by which to air their grievances.

As a prisoners' spokesman warned in our last issue, the government's obstinate refusal to listen to requests for basic human rights in the prison led to serious damage to prison property.

Things have calmed down again at present, but loyalist militants on the outside have warned prison officers that any further brutality towards prisoners could seriously damage the health of the warders responsible.

This is just one more step towards the complete alienation of the loyalist population from the traitors at Westminster and their collaborators in the police and prison service. It is not the end of the story, just another step on the road to a free Ulster.

Support Loyalist Prisoners - Their Only Crime is Loyalty.

Europe of the peoples

EUROPE is presently subjected to and suffering from the military imperialism of Internationalism in both its capitalist and state capitalist (marxist) forms. Western Europe is dominated by the USA and our East European brothers are similarly dominated by and subjected to Soviet imperialism and aggression.

Our beloved motherland is slowly suffocating under the weight of oppression, yet still Europe's Spirit and freedom lies latent in the hearts of her children, awaiting its awakening.

As well as in the western divide, the nations of eastern Europe are struggling for their freedom. This struggle, in a greater sense, heralds the coming of The Europe of the People's, which has also been termed, "Europe of the Hundred Flags".

From the small nations of Estonia, Latvia, and the Ukraine in the East, to the Basques and Ulster in the West, to a reunited Germany, a Europe of the People's shall emerge if Europe is to live and guarantee the freedom of her nation's and her people's.

A hundred flags shall flutter in the gentle breeze proclaiming national freedom within a framework of European consciousness and solidarity.

RACE THE NATURAL ORDER

IN ONE sense at least, it is probably true to say that the National Front's policy on coloured immigration is its best known policy. Virtually every household in the country has come to understand that we oppose coloured immigration, that we reject the multi-racial society, and that it is our intention to repatriate, to return, these people to their own countries. Yet, whilst this is widely known, so much misinformation and lies have been added to it, by a combination of race hating ex-members of the NF and by media liars, that it amounts to a distortion of our true beliefs.

A EUROPEAN AND WHITE COUNTRY

The basis of all these distortions revolves about just why we will institute repatriation. It is rare for our true reason for favouring repatriation to see the light of day. Rather, it is the views of our enemies - whether they be moronic bigots or Zionists in the media - which are always broadcast to the masses. They say that we argue: that the country is vastly over populated and, therefore, cannot absorb millions of immigrants. They say that we argue: that there are millions on the dole, and, therefore, we are merely importing a dole queue. They say that we argue: that immigrants smell, that they have 'blues parties', or that they are far more stupid than the so-called British 'master race'. They allege that, as a consequence of these 'arguments', we hate other peoples because they are a different colour, or have different customs.

But the fact remains that not one of these arguments is true in any meaningful sense, since they all miss the fundamental point: THIS IS OUR COUNTRY, A WHITE AND EUROPEAN COUNTRY, AND COLOURED IMMIGRATION THREATENS ITS VERY EXISTENCE.

It is perfectly true that this country is densely populated, and that the arrival of millions of immigrants aggravates the situation. But this is not the NF's reason for demanding repatriation. Even if there were only two million people in this country, instead of 60 million, we would reject immigration because this country is our birthright, handed down to us by the blood, sacrifice and love of our ancestors. No-one is going to take this inheritance from us.

Again, it is perfectly true that in a country suffering chronic unemployment, the immigration of millions of Third World people is merely importing a dole queue. But even if there were no unemployment, we would say "no" to immigration on the grounds that the land and resources of these islands are for the use of the British peoples, and them alone.

NO TO RACIAL HATRED

It is not true that the NF is an organization motivated by hatred of others, merely because they differ. We reject and condemn the idea of racial hatred because it is a juvenile, unthinking response which is positively encouraged by the British State, which works against the interests of our people, and obscures the real reason why repatriation must be undertaken.

The NF can respect all peoples and cultures. We can say in all sincerity: China for the Chinese; India for the Indians; Palestine for the Palestinians. How can it be racial hatred, therefore, to say: Britain for the British?

Arguments that revolve around "smelly immigrants", "thick blacks" or "noisy parties" are pushed by conservative papers like the Daily Mail, not because they are interested in racial harmony, but because they want to keep whites and blacks at each others' throats. In this way, the real culprit - the British State which created the misery of the multi-racial society that has been a nightmare for blacks, browns, yellows and whites alike - will go unchallenged.

RACIALISM - A WAY OF LIFE

So, in this first installment on Race and Immigration, please understand that the principal reason for us advocating repatriation is that we desire to keep this country white. We desire to retain its European traditions. We desire to maintain its spiritual, artistic and cultural heritage. We desire that the British peoples of these islands determine their own future and in their own way. Coloured immigration is a lethal threat to these objectives.

We wish the coloureds no harm, indeed we wish them well - in their own countries. The world will only gain a semblance of true peace when it accepts that there are unbridgeable differences of race, culture and nation between the peoples of the world. The multi-racialist, motivated by a seething hatred, tries to destroy this human diversity. The racist, on the other hand, whether he be black, yellow or white, faces reality. All peoples prefer their own kind and their own customs.

The National Front intends to ensure that each of these ways of life is preserved in its proper setting - its own national territory. Racism, therefore, is not negative, or a matter of hatred. Rather it is positive - a positive acceptance of real life. It is a matter of genuine love - a love of our people, our country and our traditions. It is a positive love of the natural order of things.

BURNING BOOKS CATALOGUE ( 30p inc. post & packing ). Over 150 books all available from stock. Politics to history, environment to classic literature. The majority of these books are unobtainable through any establishment supplier. This is your chance to buy these books that the State wants burnt.

Name.....Address.....

PLEASE NOTE OUR NEW ADDRESS. The Bookshop at Pawsons Road in Croydon has been CLOSED. A new phone number will be circulated shortly. Burning Books will continue to operate as normal as a mail order business.

There are four reasons for this change: 1) Because of the racial mix of the area and the earlier use of the building by the National Front, it was impossible to insure the property. This was an unacceptable risk.

2) The rapid de-centralization of the NF's merchandizing operation to local NFN units has reduced the need for one central outlet.

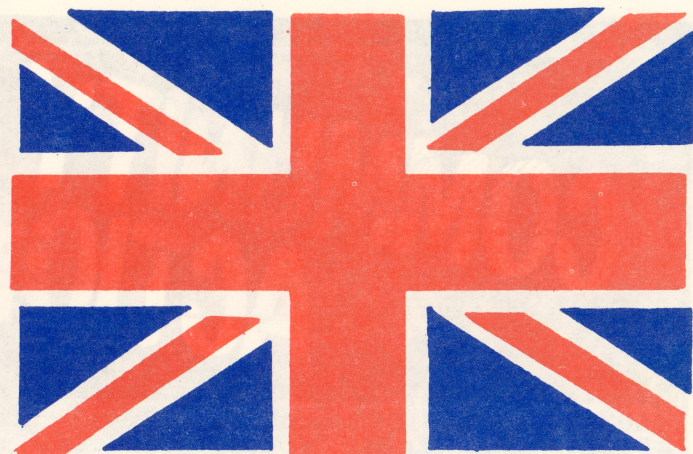

3) The mail order side of Burning Books sales has risen steadily, with fewer people bothering to make the difficult journey to Croydon.

4) The poor position and continued decline of the neighbourhood has meant that the shop has increasingly been subsidized by the profits of the mail order operation. This is a waste of capital which should be used to build up stock levels and widen the range of products available.

NUCLEAR MURDER

Children die of nuclear cancers

NUCLEAR POWER is killing our children! This is not alarmist speculation, it is the sad official verdict of the British Medical Journal. The figures for leukaemia and other childhood cancers show a frightening link between nuclear installations and agonizing death.

Researchers have already discovered an excess in the number of childhood cancers near the big Sellafield reprocessing plant in west Cumbria. Contrary to popular belief, Sellafield is not run by the government in the interests of the British economy, but is run for a profit by a capitalist firm, British Nuclear Fuels Ltd.

It is therefore not surprising to find that greed for greater profits has led to bad safety procedures such as the dumping of radio-active waste in the Irish sea.

TWICE THE RISK

But the latest shock report shows that government run installations are no better. Babies and children, living near the Atomic Energy Authority's fast breeder reactor at Dounreay in Scotland, and near MoD atomic weapons centres at Aldermaston and Burghfield, run twice the normal risk of developing leukaemia.

Since these plants are not run for private profit, their safety record should be better. The fact that it is not is clear proof that radio-active material is a deadly menace, whoever is in charge.

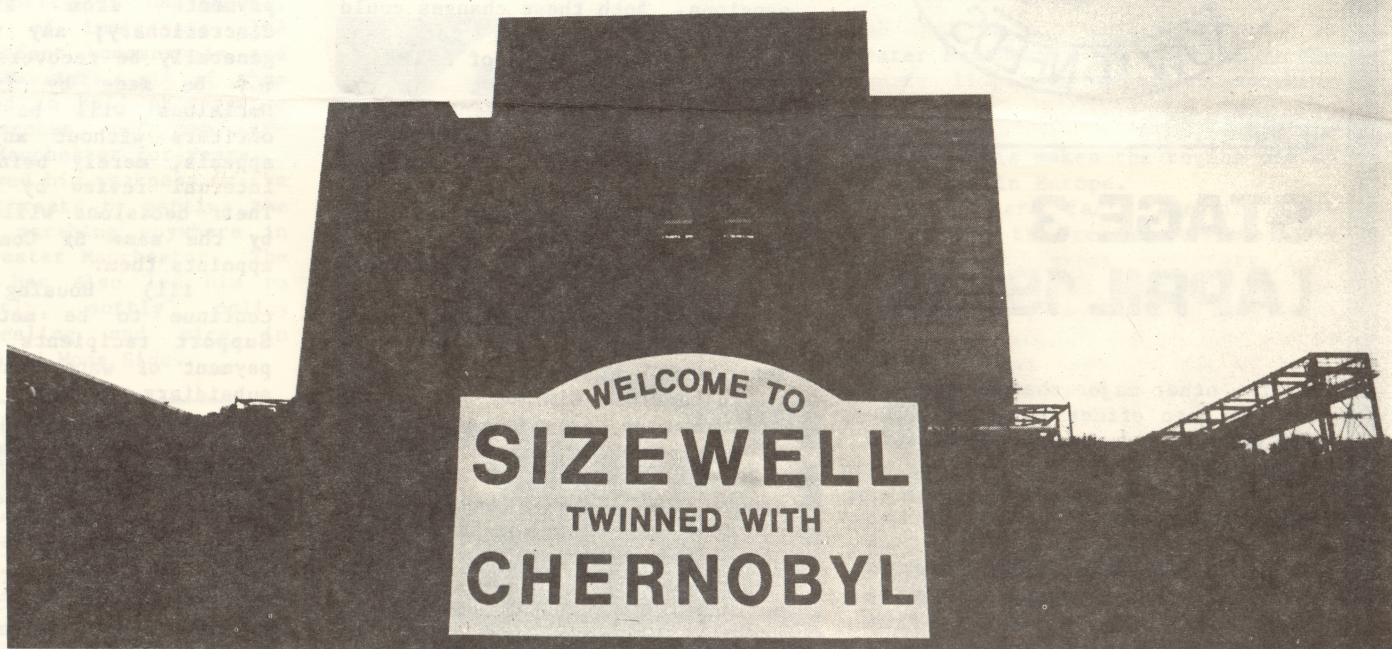

The area in Oxfordshire and Berkshire between the Atomic Energy Authority's research centre at Harwell and the Atomic Weapons research plant at Aldermaston, is particularly badly hit. Researchers have found 29 cases of leukaemia among the under fours there. Only 14 would be expected on the basis of national figures. As the British Medical Journal report makes clear, the 60,000 children under 14 living within 7 miles of the plants "run a significantly increased risk of the disease."

And even in the sparsely populated countryside around the Dounreay fast breeder reactor in Scotland, there have been 5 cases of this form of cancer, instead of the expected statistical average of just over one and a half. And a similar alarming increase affecting dozens of children in Cumbria, Ulster and the North Wales coast can be traced to leaks from the notorious Sellafield plant.

CHERNOBYL

North Wales has also been hit by the effects of fall-out from the disaster at the Soviet nuclear power station at Chernobyl. Now the Welsh Office's scientists have told farmers there that the concentration of radio-activity which makes their lamb unfit for human consumption may last for 30 years. But an independent researcher, Dr. Doughty, of Bangor University, has warned that it might take 100 years before the contamination falls to safe levels.

There is, however, strong evidence to suggest that some of this radio-activity comes from the ageing Magnox nuclear power plant at Trawsfynydd, which has polluted its cooling lake to twice the recommended "action level". But until Chernobyl, no-one thought to check the sheep in the area to see if the pollution was building up in their meat.

DANGEROUS

In spite of all this, the government has just given the go-ahead for the building of a dangerous American designed Pressurized Water Reactor at Sizewell in Suffolk.

Yet if the cost of this lunatic project was put into giving free insulation for the homes of pensioners and poor families, it would save more energy than the station will ever produce. But the Tories want more nuclear power stations in order to make coal powered stations less important and weaken the power of the miners.

This second plant at Sizewell will join the 135 nuclear reactors operating in Western Europe. The U.S. Nuclear Regulatory Commission predicts that a "second Chernobyl" will take place at one of these within 7 years.

DYING

But even if it doesn't, British children are dying RIGHT NOW from the effects of radio-activity. Yet we have enough coal to supply all the energy we need for hundreds of years. And the position would be even better if the government would spend a fraction of the multi-million pound cost of Sizewell to fund a realistic research programme into renewable energy sources such as wind and wave power.

Quite simply, nuclear power isn't necessary, it isn't safe, and it isn't wanted.

It isn't just an issue for a handful of muesli-eating cranks, the overwhelming majority of the British peoples give the same answer:

NUCLEAR DEATH?
